Dear invitees,

Haere Mai! Yamkela! Welcome!

We are six months out from CEAD 2016, and very excited to share with you our progress for the Association of CEAD's biennial meeting hosted by UCT Anthropology in Cape Town South Africa. As we have had previously, we expect a vibrant and stimulating four days, and hope you will make plans to join us! More details follow and you may also find information at CEAD.org.nz, and in our Facebook group, Contemporary Ethnography Across the Disciplines!

Looking forward to seeing you all in Cape Town in November 2016.

CEAD 2016 - Call for papers is now open

Call for papers for the CEAD 2016 is now OPEN.

With the 2016 theme—Ethnographic Imaginings: Place, Space, and Time—calls for contributors to explore ethnographies as located contextually within meaningful sites and temporal moments. The spaces, places and times we can imagine include explorations of rurality and urbanity, wild and tamed, critical and creative, sensual and cognitive, and contemporary and —and all ranges of creative impulse. All manner of ethnographies are welcomed, and the conference theme merely acts as a guide for possibilities. We invite contributors to experiment with traditional ethnography, as well as new methodologies and with new presentational formats such as dramatic, performance, poetic, visual, aromatic, tactile, video, auto-, fictional, and experimental forms of ethnography.

In 2016 there are four major content streams for exploration (read more about each one here):

- Emerging Methods: Traditional, Experimental and Transgressive Forms
- Praxis and Advocacy: Doing Ethnography on the Ground
- Social Justice and Transformation: Theoretical Ethnographic Visions
- Indigenous Voices: Communicating Peoples

The CFP form is available to download from the CEAD website. We look forward to hearing from you.

A Day in South African languages, Spanish and Portuguese

At CEAD on Tuesday 15 November non-English speaking sessions will be delivered in South African languages (Xhosa, Afrikaans), Spanish and Portuguese. We encourage papers exploring the conference theme and/or streams, written and delivered in South African languages, Spanish and Portuguese. These papers will be integrated into the general conference sessions, and we encourage presenters to share their research in English during the following three days of CEAD conference.

Contributors to these sessions should contact the following people and send abstracts directly to them:

Spanish & Portuguese - Antonio Garcia (garciaquioga@gmail.com)

isiXhosa/South African languages - Lindiswa Jan (lindiswa.jan@gmail.com)

Keynote Speakers

A reminder that information on our fascinating keynote speakers, César A. Cisneros-Puebla - Professor of Sociology at Autonomous Metropolitan University-Iztapalapa, Mexico, D. Jean Clandinin - Professor and Founding Director of the Centre for Research for Teacher Education and Development at the University of Alberta, and Keyan G. Tomaselli - Distinguished Professor, Faculty of Humanities and Professor Emeritus, University of KwaZulu-Natal, Nolwazi Mkhwanazi, a medical anthropologist from the University of the Witwatersrand can be found on the website along with details of their keynote presentations and pre-conference workshops.

Pre-conference Workshops

Pre-conference workshops will take place on 15 November 2016. You are invited to participate in a workshop given by established ethnographers with expertise in more hands-on, focused, or theoretical sessions. We are delighted to welcome the return of D. Soyini Madison to present a workshop. Soyini's workshop and keynote presentation at the 2014 conference were so well received by all.

Other workshop presenters include each of our keynote speakers, as well as Mary Elizabeth Lange, Research Advisor CCMS, UKZN, Robert E. Rinehart, University of Waikato, NZ and Sara Kindon, Victoria University of Wellington, NZ. More workshops will be added to the schedule in the coming weeks.

Check the website for more information on the full schedule of workshops.
